Sean Peirce & Scott McClure – A great team at Ansome Computer Services

I've found that Sean Peirce & Scott McClure of Ansome Computer Services have excellent computer skills as well a good knowledge of buying software and hardware. Sean supports of Novell server and Scott has solved several issues with our QuickBook Point of Sale system. No job or question is too small and they are willing to take time with staff to answer questions. They have a positive attitude and are enjoyable to work with.
